It's Local and Community History Month – let's explore the history of where we live!

Saturday 11 May, from 10.30am to 3pm

Bolton Central Library and Museum will be hosting a Local and Family History Market Place.

Come along and talk to various local and family history groups and find out more about what they do and how you can get involved.

Visit the History Centre where you can carry out your research and members of the Family History Society will be on hand to help you with your queries.

On Saturday 18 May we invite you to join the archivist for a tour of the Bolton Archives strongroom. Take a peek inside and have a look at some of the treasures from Bolton's archive collections. To book your free place on the tours which run at 11am, 1pm and 3pm call the History Centre on 01204 332185 or email archives@bolton.gov.uk
